

Coaching course for karatekas

The International Federation of Funakoshi Shotokan Karate South Africa (IFFSKSA) will be holding a major national coaching course on 27 and 28 February 2009.

The course will be taking place at the Arena Park Regional Hall. The course will be conducted by chief instructor, Shihan Eric Govender (6th Dan) and other instructors of IFFSKSA.

Clubs that will be participating are from Chatsworth, Phoenix, Newlands, Isipingo, Wentworth, Merebank, Reservoir Hills, Pietermaritzburg, Kokstad, Queensburgh, Wyebank, Westville, Stanger as well as Gauteng, Northern Cape, Western Cape, Mpumalanga, Free State, Upington and the North West province.

Karatekas from other clubs wishing to partake in this coaching course should contact Shihan Eric Govender on 083 777 0727 or on 031 464 5946 (after 8pm).

The organisation's activities for this year include the 25th anniversary celebration of IFFSKSA as well as the 10th IFFSK World Karate Championships, which will be held in Sun City this September.
