

Schalk van Staden, left, tussled with Malvin Govender while referee Shihan Peter Chamier observed the proceedings during the International Federation of Funakoshi Shotokan Karate South Africa's (IFFSKSA's) annual National Championships held at the Old Mutual Sports Centre, UKZN campus, on Saturday.

Over 700 karatekas from around the country took part in the event which formed part of the organisation's 25th anniversary celebrations.

The winner of the senior male black belt kata (sequence of movements) division was Brian Govender, followed by Malvin Govender and Denver Subramoney in second and third place respectively

Picture: NINEY RUTHNAM

