

High Kicks For Karate Contest

The International Federation of Funakoshi Shotokan Karate South Africa will host its 24th National Karate Championships on Saturday 23 August at the University of Kwa-Zulu Natal's Old Mutual Sports

Karatekas in action.

Centre at 8am. Durban Shihan Eric Govender, Sixth Dan, IFFSKSA's president and chief instructor said, "Over 650 karatekas from all provinces throughout the country will be participating in this grand event. They will not only be fighting for the 2008 Funakoshi Cup, but for the spirit of karate." The highlight includes the senior men and women's division competition for the high honours. Parents and karatekas are encouraged to support the championships.
