

Shivaan Ramdeen, Aveline Harielall, Yashna Sarju and Shrihara Pattundeen will representing South Africa in the commonwealth championship in Gauteng.

Local karatekas get national honours

FIVE local karateka's will be living their dreams when they represent South Africa in the Commonwealth Championship.

Shivaan Ramdeen, Aveline Harielall, Yashna Sarju, Shrihara Pattudeen and Kirthi Hansraj received their Protea colours and travel to the Championship which taking place in Centurion, Gauteng on 16 and 17 October.

Shrihara Pattundeen will represent the national team in Morroco in November to compete at the World Karate Federation World Junior.

President and chief instructor of IFFSKSA, Shihan Eric Govender, said, "The discipline and dedication of these karatekas during these intensive training sessions brought them to the pinnacle of their sport."

Aveline Harrielall, a second year Phsycology student at UKZN represented SA in Botswana earlier this year. She said, "I am extremely excited, it is an honour for me and the organisation I represent."

The Karatekas who are no strangers to success after they bagged numerous medals at the 11th FSKA World Championships in Sun City in September will be hoping for a repeat performance at the Commonwealth Championships.